

Local Streets and Roads Needs Assessment
California State Association of Counties, League of California Cities,
County Engineers Association of California, Rural Counties Task Force
and Regional Transportation Planning Agencies

February 26, 2010, 9:30 am – 2:00 pm
California State Association of Counties
1101 K Street, 1st Floor Conference Room,
Sacramento, CA 95814

-or-

CSAC Conference Call line 916-658-8286
(no passcode is needed, it will ring until people conference in.)

AGENDA

- |                                                                                                                                      |                 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|
| 1. Introductions – All                                                                                                        | (5 min)  |
| 2. Purpose of Meeting                                                                                                         |                 |
| Pat DeChellis, Project Manager                                                                                                       | (10 min) |
| 3. Topics of discussion:                                                                                                      |                 |
| a. Update of Media Outreach ( Kiana Buss, Dorothy Johnson )                                                                   | (30 min) |
| b. Phase II project update ( Pat DeChellis )                                                                                  | (90 min) |
| • Update on contract negotiations                                                                                                    |                 |
| • Approval of data request letter to agencies – see draft letter, which is attached to the e-mail transmittal as a separate document |                 |
| • Approval of data letter to MPO's, see draft letter, which is attached to the e-mail transmittal as a separate document             |                 |
| • Status of database creation                                                                                                        |                 |
| • Proposed schedule                                                                                                                  |                 |
| c. PCI & Backlog Analysis ( Pat DeChellis )                                                                                   | (90 min) |
| • Identify potential funding scenarios                                                                                               |                 |
| d. Bridge data                                                                                                                       | (15 min) |
| 4. Next Steps:                                                                                                                | (15 min) |
| 5. Closing Remarks                                                                                                            | (15 min) |
| Pat DeChellis, Project Manager                                                                                                       |                 |
| 6. Next Meetings:                                                                                                             |                 |
| June 11, 2010; September 10, 2010; December 10, 2010                                                                                 |                 |